We would like to hear your story.

A conversation about the deen you received, how you live it, and what you hope to pass on. You do not need to be well known or a scholar. Season one is in preparation; no episodes have been published.

FORMAT

One conversation

Usually one to two hours, with breaks when needed.

LOCATION

Remote

Join through your browser. We test the connection together.

YOUR PERMISSION

Review first

You hear the recording before anything is published.

Three themes, shared ahead

What you received. The people and experiences that helped you learn the deen.

How you live it. Faith in the ordinary week, and what you are still learning.

What you pass on. What you hope to leave with your family, students, or community.

Your words, your choice

Questions in advance. Time to reflect before the conversation.

Careful editing. We will not edit your words into a meaning you did not intend.

Your decision. Ask us to withhold publication or to remove an episode later.

Your recording. You receive a copy. We do not ask for exclusivity over your words.

How it begins

01 / INTRODUCE YOURSELF

Write to Hamza. A short introductory call is possible before you decide.

02 / RECORD TOGETHER

Agree on a time and receive the themes ahead of the conversation.

03 / REVIEW

Listen before publication. Tell us what you would like changed or withheld.

Start with a conversation.

Hamza Abdul-Tawwaab
hamza@inheritingislam.com · (470) 404-0648
inheritingislam.com/podcast/guests/